

Introduced by Senator Denham

February 27, 2009

An act to amend Section 67600 of the Education Code, relating to military training.

LEGISLATIVE COUNSEL'S DIGEST

SB 645, as introduced, Denham. Public higher education: training programs at military facilities.

Existing law establishes the University of California and the California State University as 2 of the segments of public postsecondary education in this state. Existing law states that nothing in the public policy of the state requires the establishment or disestablishment of any United States Armed Forces training unit or class at any campus of a public institution of higher education.

This bill would declare that the University of California and the California State University may coordinate with the United States Armed Forces to establish training programs at military facilities.

Vote: majority. Appropriation: no. Fiscal committee: no.
State-mandated local program: no.

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

- 1 SECTION 1. Section 67600 of the Education Code is amended
- 2 to read:
- 3 67600. (a) Nothing in the public policy of the State of
- 4 California requires the establishment or the disestablishment of
- 5 any United States Armed Forces training unit or class at any
- 6 campus of a public postsecondary educational institution or the
- 7 prohibition of employment recruitment by the United States Armed

1 Forces at any campus of a public postsecondary educational
2 institution.

3 (b) The University of California and the California State
4 University may coordinate with the United States Armed Forces
5 to establish training programs at military facilities.